	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Information
	<input type="checkbox"/> Public Hearing

RECOMMENDATION

Approve appointments to the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act of 2001 Title I Committee of Practitioners.

SUMMARY OF PREVIOUS STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION DISCUSSION AND ACTION

At the November 2003 meeting, the State Board of Education appointed 18 members to the Title I Committee of Practitioners.

SUMMARY OF KEY ISSUES

The Title I Committee of Practitioners is a mandated advisory committee (NCLB Act of 2001 section 1903(b)) whose primary function is to advise the State Board on regulations and other issues related to Title I, Improving the Academic Achievement of the Disadvantaged. The law requires the members to be appointed by the state education agency. On January 28-29, 2004, the Title I Committee of Practitioners met in Sacramento and a total of 27 members attended this meeting.

FISCAL ANALYSIS (AS APPROPRIATE)

The Title I Committee of Practitioners is federally funded. Committee members do not receive compensation, but are reimbursed for travel related expenses to attend the meeting.
